University To Confer 69 Degrees

1938.

Special to the Gazette.

Fayetteville, Oct. 1.—Sixty-nine University of Arkansas students will be candidates for degrees at the fall convocation in the field house at 10:30 a. m. October 8. Chief speaker will be WPA Director Harry Hopkins, who will come to Fayetteville to take part in the dedication ceremonies for the university's new stadium that afternoon. The university will confer LL. D. degrees on Mr. Hopkins and J. N. Heiskell, editor of the Arkansas Gazette.

Floyd Sharp, state WPA administrator, has announced that administrators of three states had accepted invitations to attend the stadium dedication. They are: Roland Wall, Mississippi; James H. Crutcher, Louisiana, and Ron Stephens, Oklahoma. Mr. Sharp said that Malcolm Miller, WPA regional field representative from New Orleans, also would attend.
